Standing at the crossroads,
Trying to read the signs,

To tell me which way
I should go to find the answers.

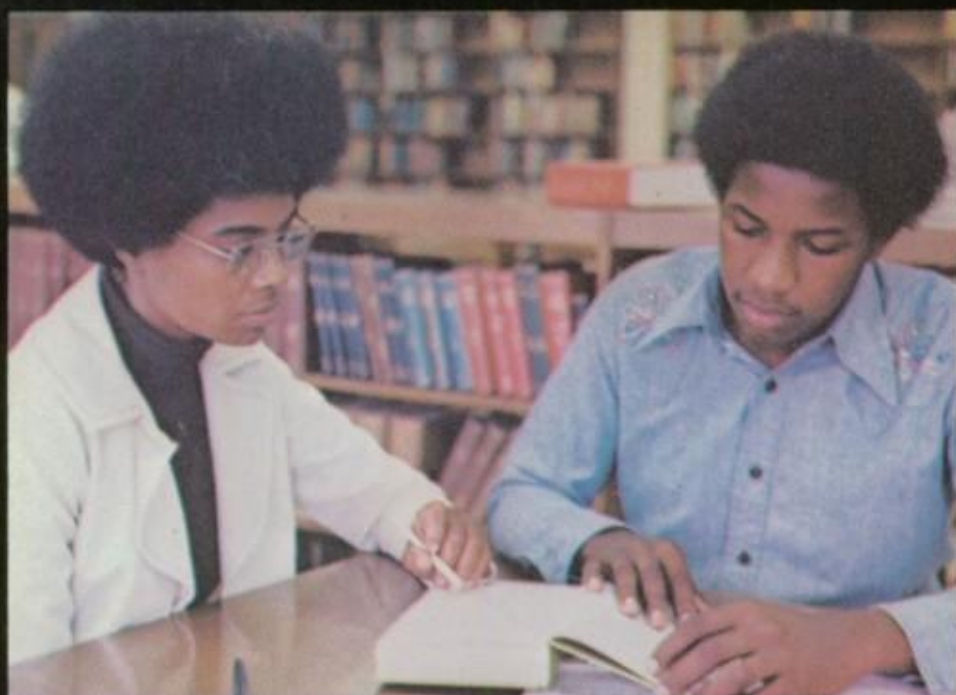

Plant your love,

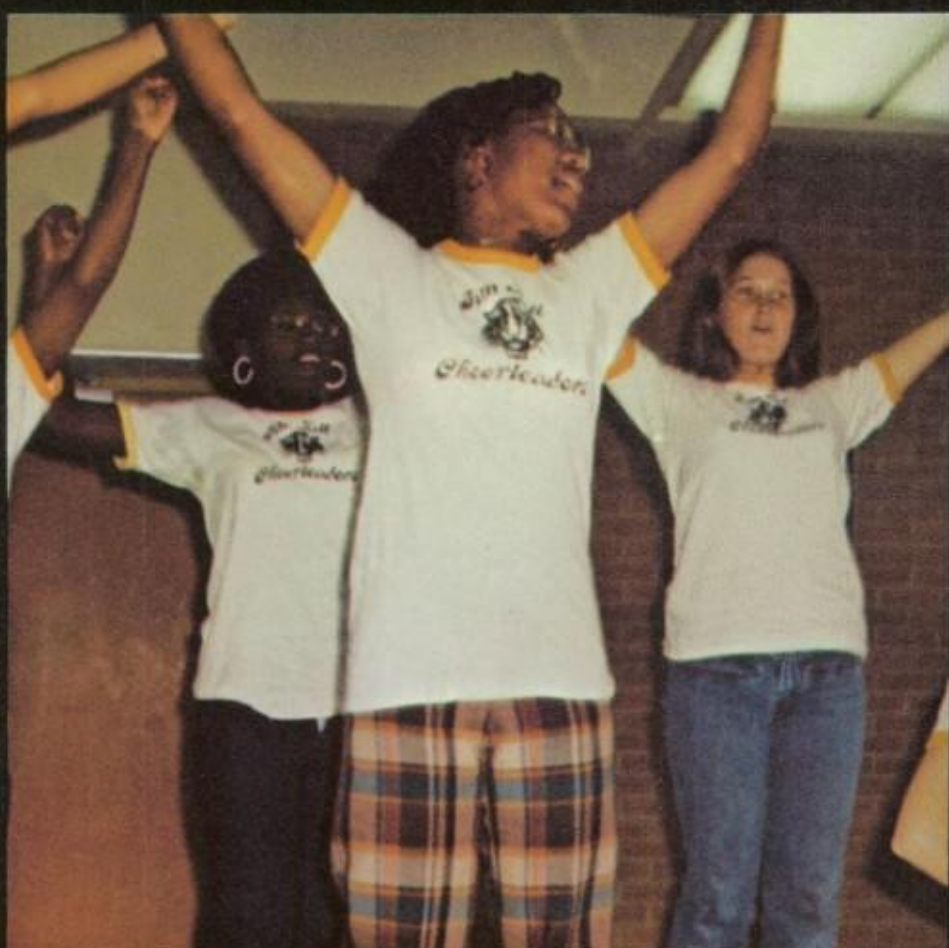

And let it grow.

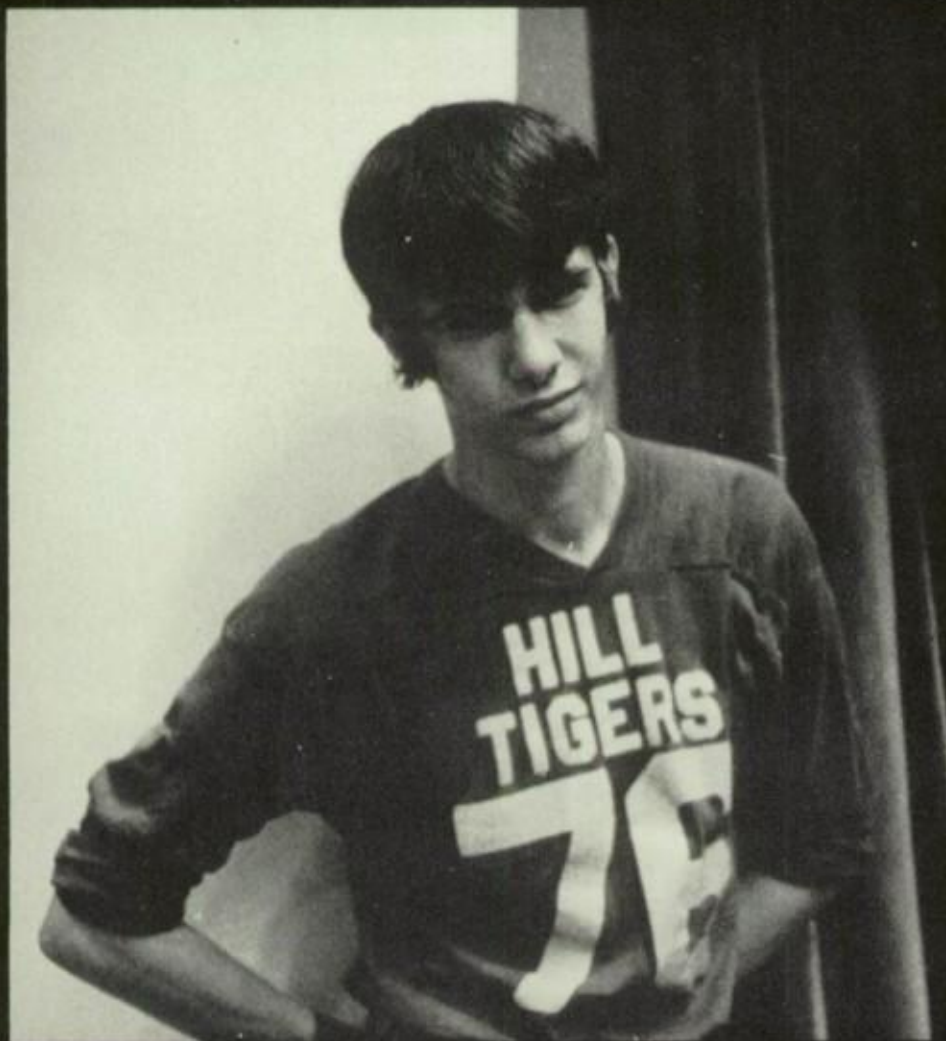

Time is getting shorter,

And there's much for you to do.

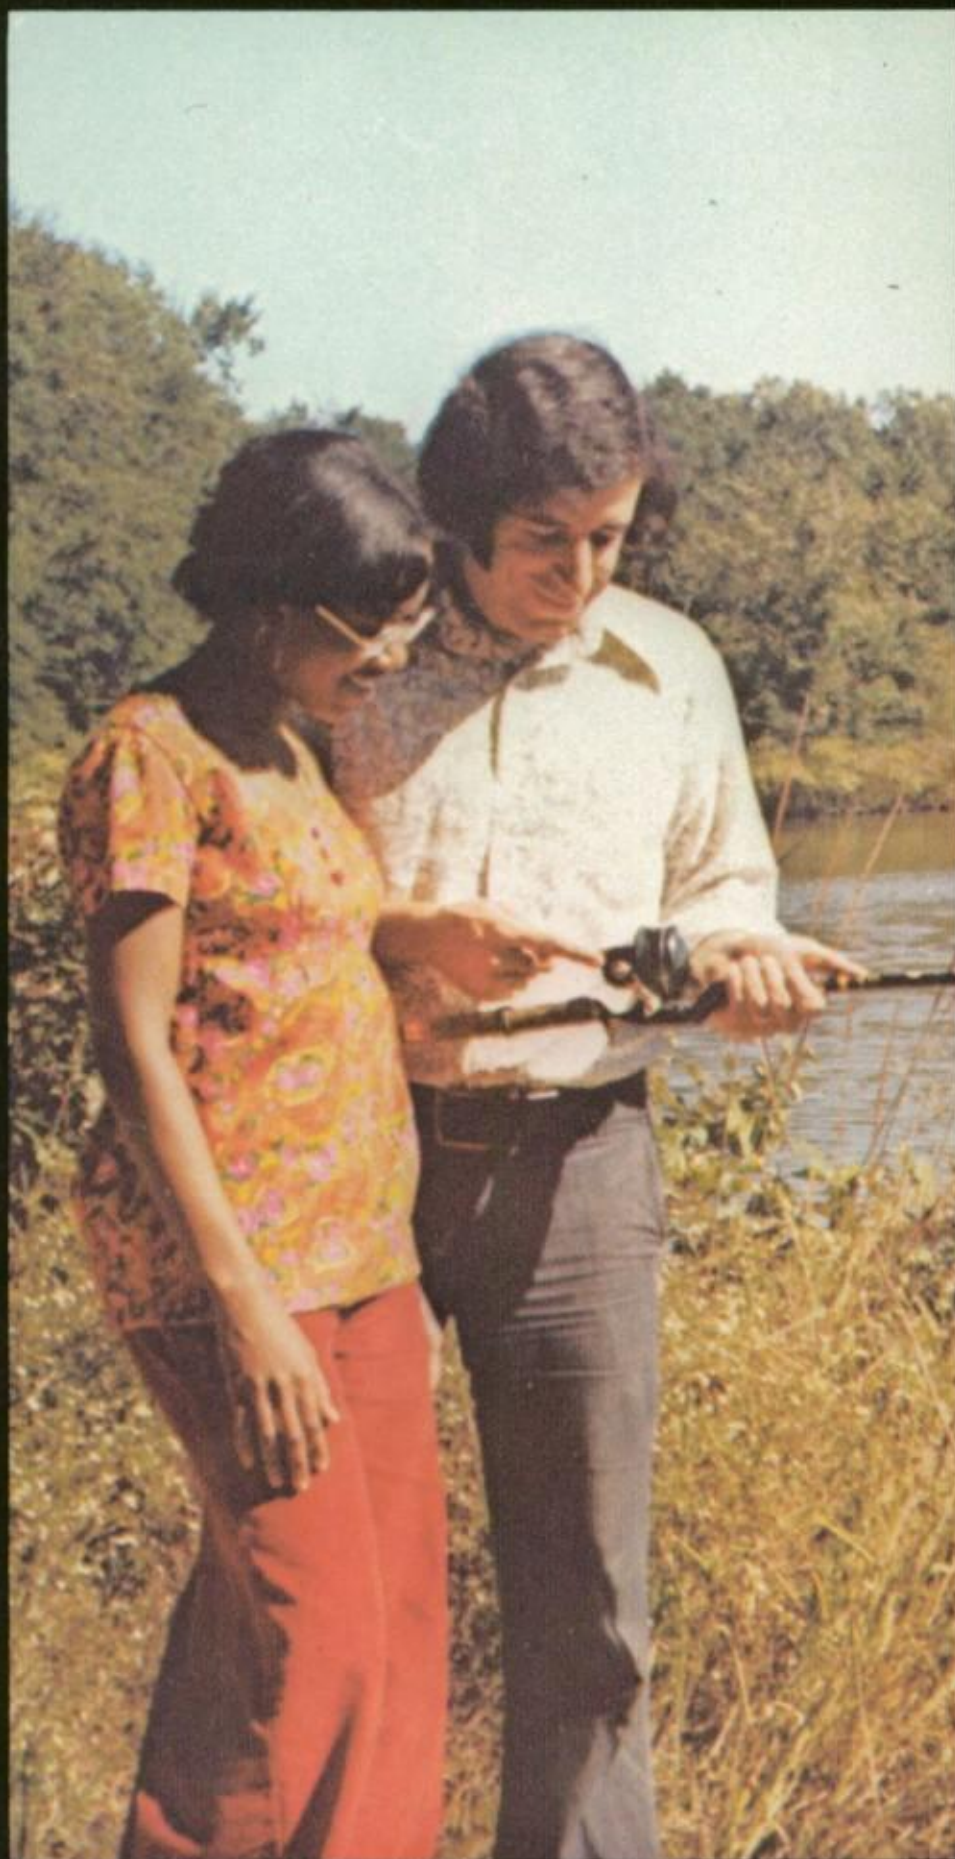

So hard to get a friend
That I can count on

When there's Nothing left to show.

Only ask, and you will get
What you are needing.

Plant your love,
And let it grow.

The rest is up to you.

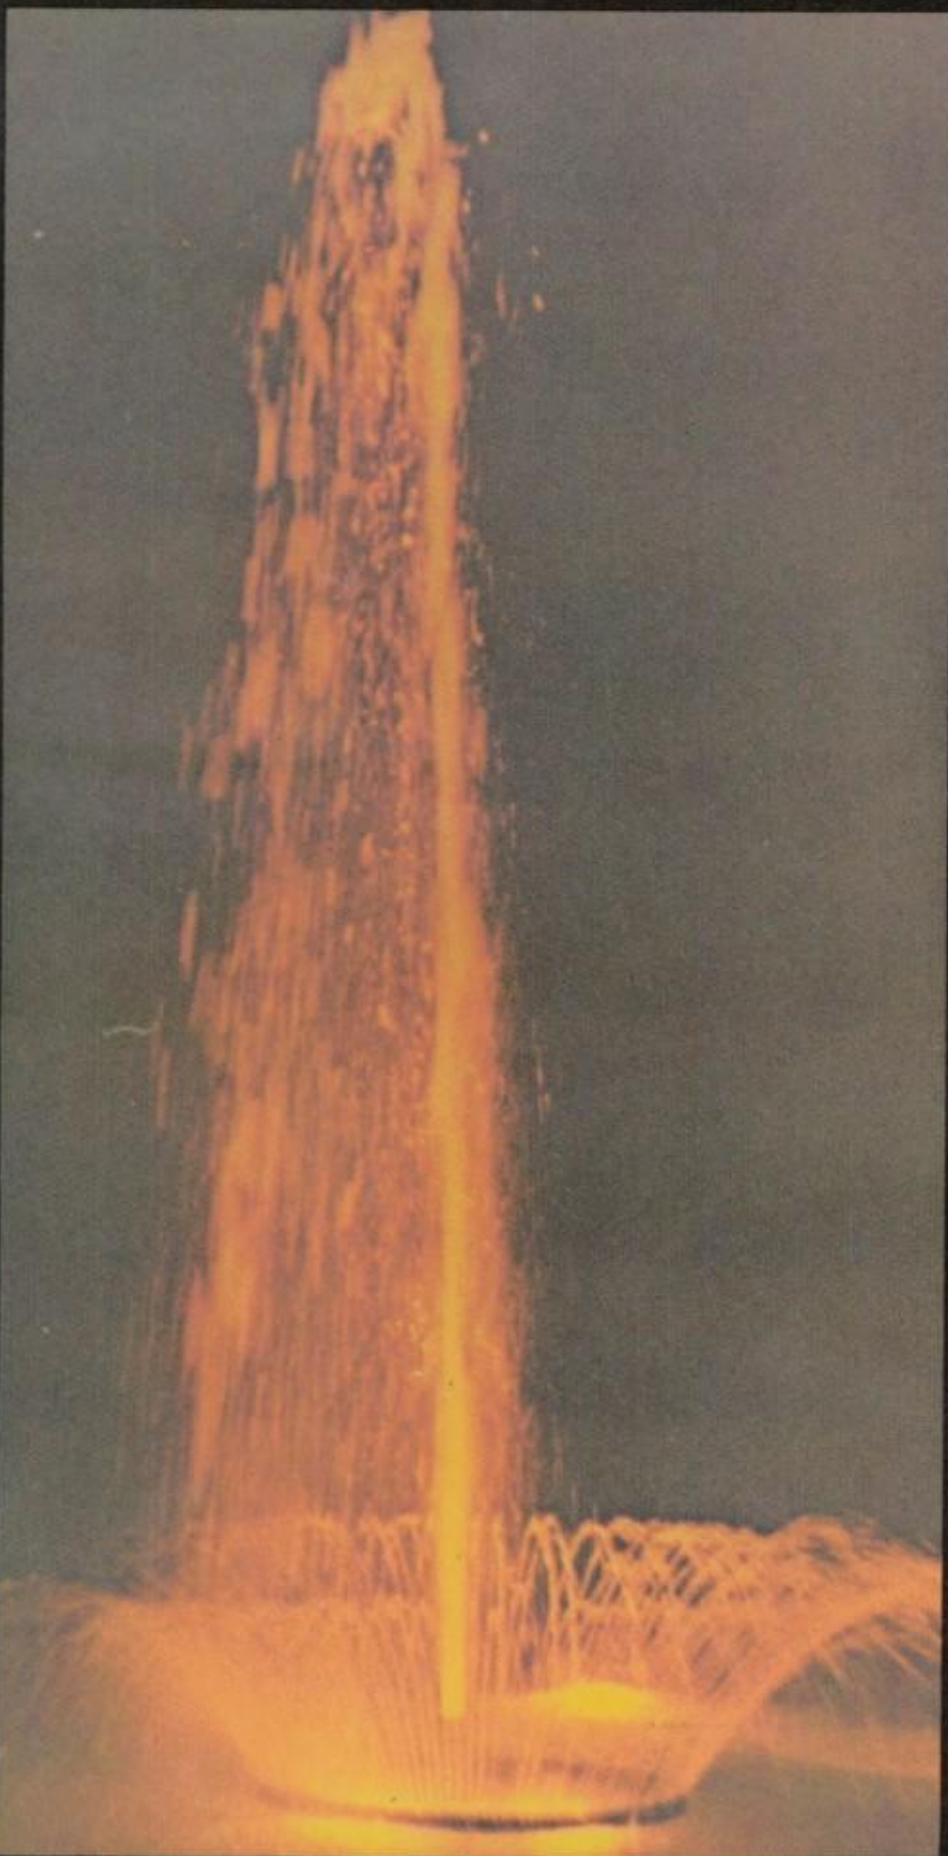

Plant your love,
And let it grow.

Let it blossom,
Let it flow

In the sun,
the rain, the snow . . .

To get what you are needing, know —
Love is lovely, so let it grow.

Dedication

Say she is wise -
That in her mind are dreams
Tempered strong by other, earth-bound things.
For wisdom is past dreaming.
Say she is good -
That in her eyes lives something
Which mankind was meant to have
And all have lost, somehow, but one.
Say she is strong -
That her strength, an inner thing,
Begins at courage and goes on
Beyond, to heights untouched and clear.

Adapted from "Of Things Unspoken"
by Susan Allison

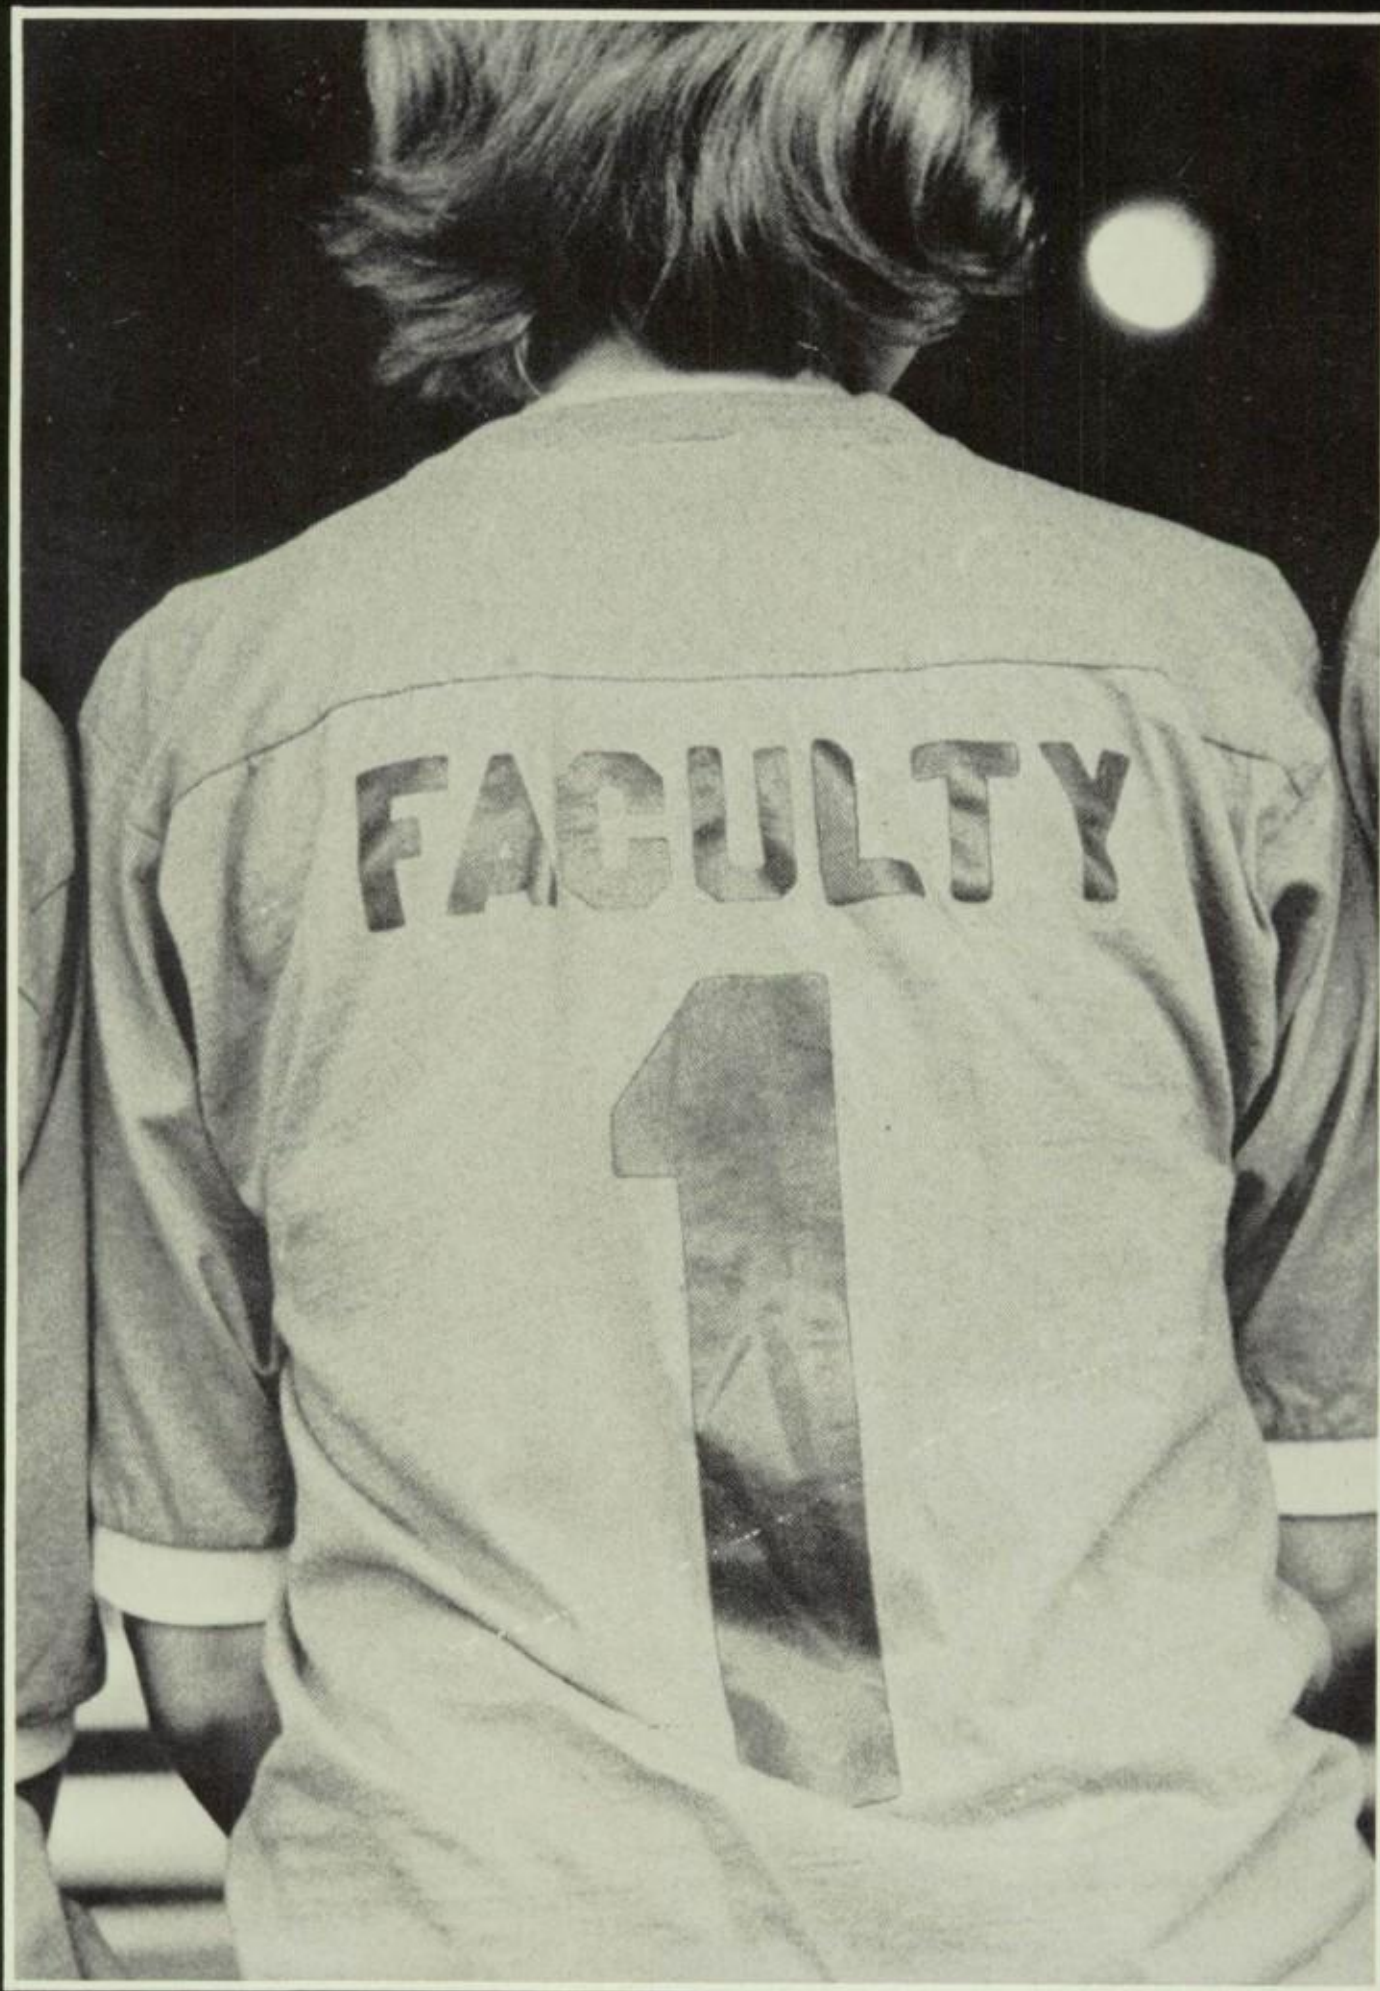

Within every institution, there is always one personality who best exemplifies the spirit of the multitude. This is one who works continuously for the good of those in her charge with never a thought of self. It is one who is ever understanding and ready to listen when a problem arises. The 1975 Tiger staff had no difficulties in deciding to dedicate the annual to our advisor, Mary T. Bradley.

Kaleidoscope 1975

Sophomores

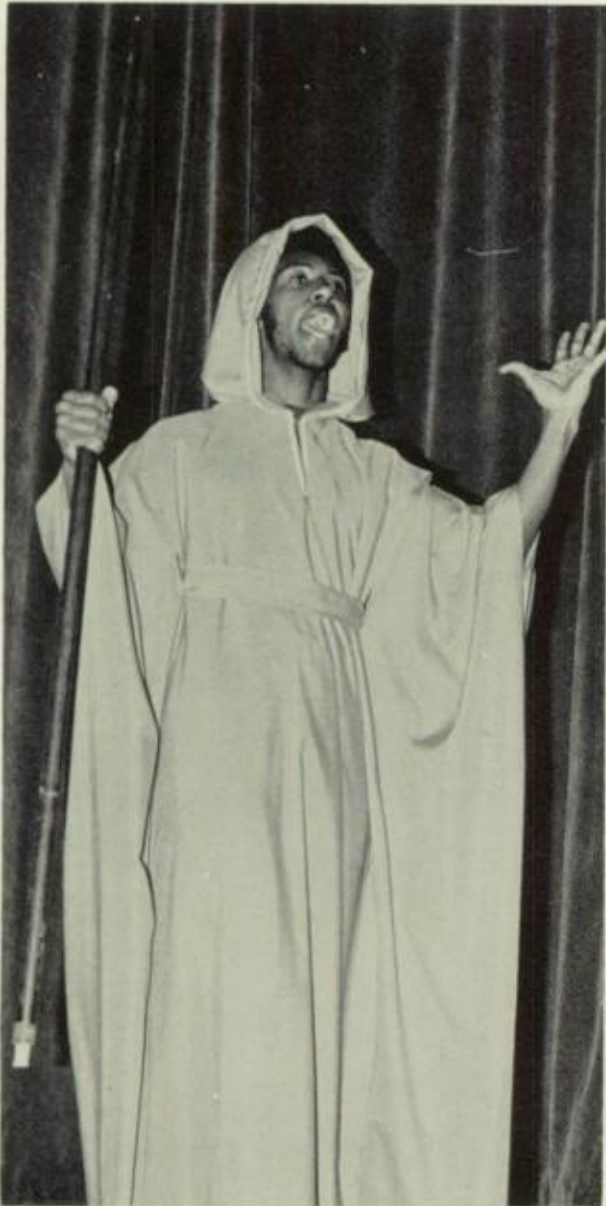

The Sophomore Class make their debut in Kaleidoscope with "Time Trouble." Prof. Ziggy's time machine proves interesting to a visiting science class and accidentally transports some students to the Stone Age and then to the year 2525. They return to the Present filled with tales of excitement of their saga.

Juniors

Atlantis is re-examined by the Junior Class' production of "Pets Are People, Too." Their theory has the animal kingdom as the dominant race, and Homosapiens as pets. The pets revolt at their harsh treatment and Father Time has to intervene to set social conditions aright. Realizing their mistakes, the pets and masters set about to build a better Atlantis.

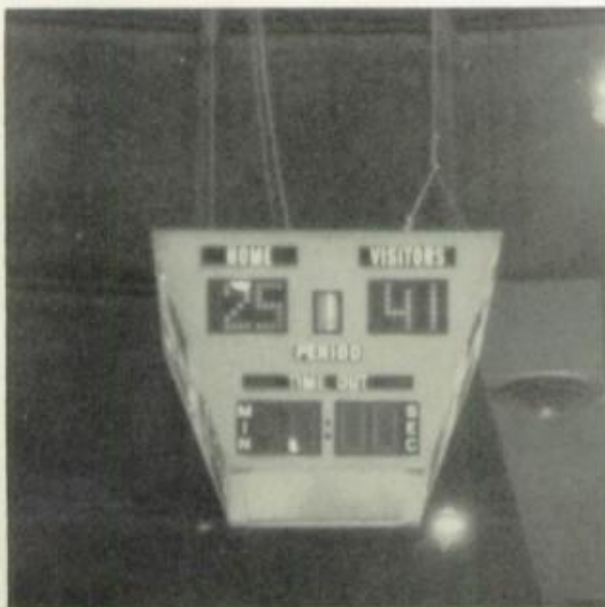

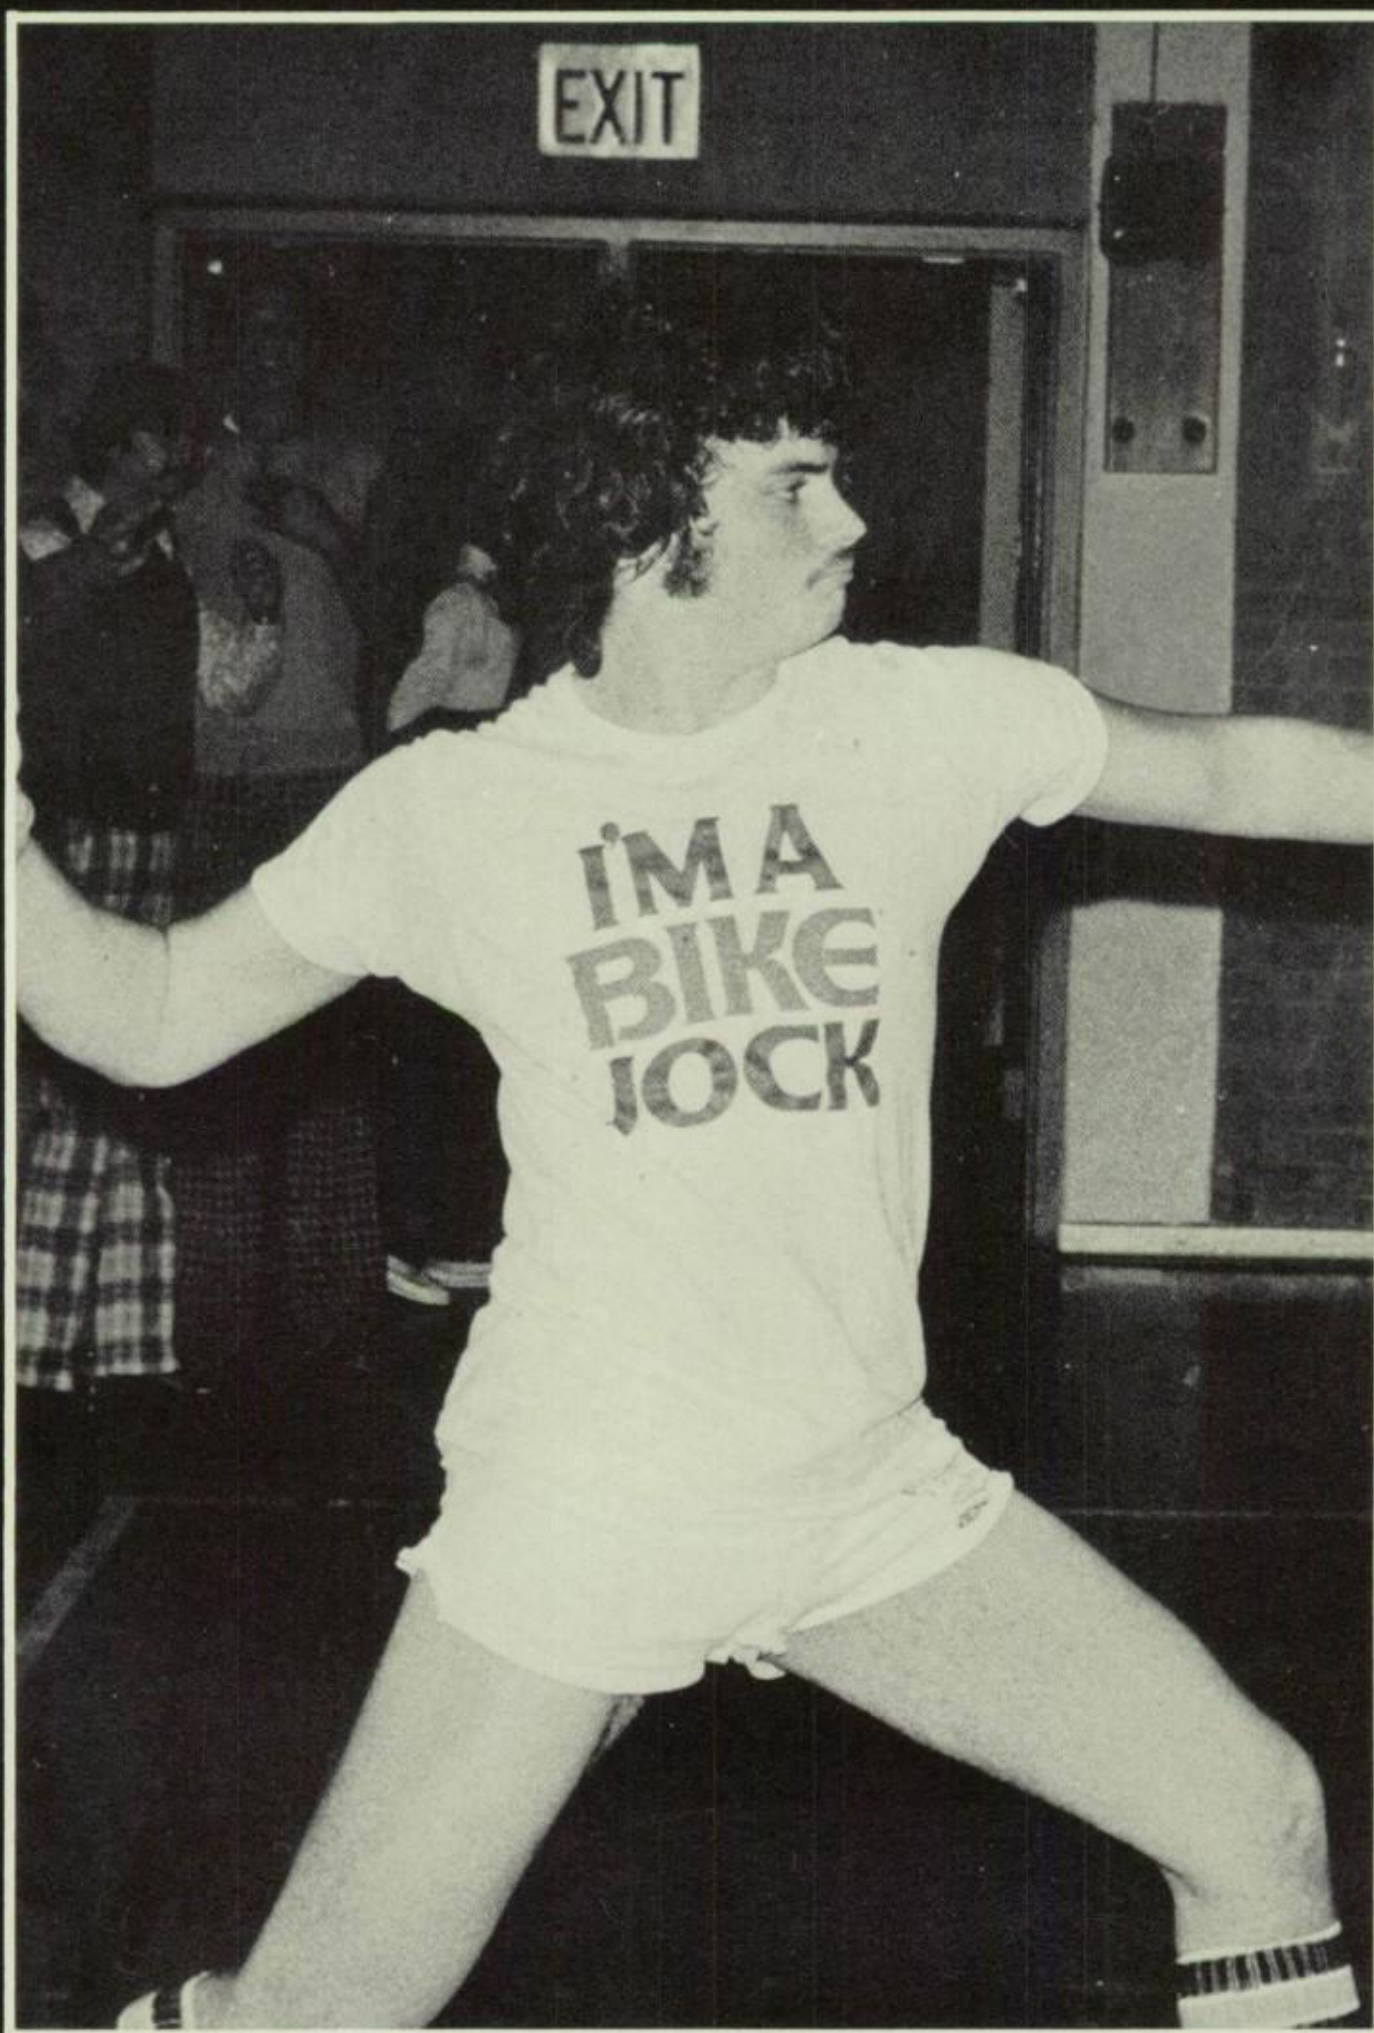

Seniors

The Senior Class with their Swan Song Kaleidoscope production, deals a spectacular hand in "Deal Me In." After misuse in the game of tossing cards in a hat at the Dew-Drop Inn, the cards set out for Lost Vegas to find fame and fortune, led by Blackjack and the Ace of Spades. After many attempts, they hit upon an act that shoots them to the heights of show business.

With most of the previous year's players returning, the Tigers entered the 1974 football season with optimism. Sporting one of the toughest schedules in the city, our cats struggled in the first few games. Then, coming on strong in the latter part of the season, Hill recorded a 3-7 ledger, including wins over Wingfield, Provine and a forfeit from Cleveland. The Tigers played well in most all the games, but errors cost, especially a 7-0 loss to Central.

Wingfield THE GAME

On October 10, 1974, the Hill Tigers came out on the field ready to play. The opponent: arch rival Wingfield. The Falcons struck first, leading 7-0 at half time. But the Tigers came out for the second half kick-off convinced we could win. Our offense exploded for 22 second-half points while the defense stymied the Wingfield offense, yielding only a punt return for a TD. Final score: Hill 22, Wingfield 13.

Signs of the Times . . .

. . . Graffiti!

We Lined Up . . .

. . . and Up

The upside-down flag, an international signal of distress, was unintentionally hoisted over Hill one blustery February morning. The TIGER staff felt it appropriate to use on this page, as we were financially distressed and the following patrons came to our rescue.

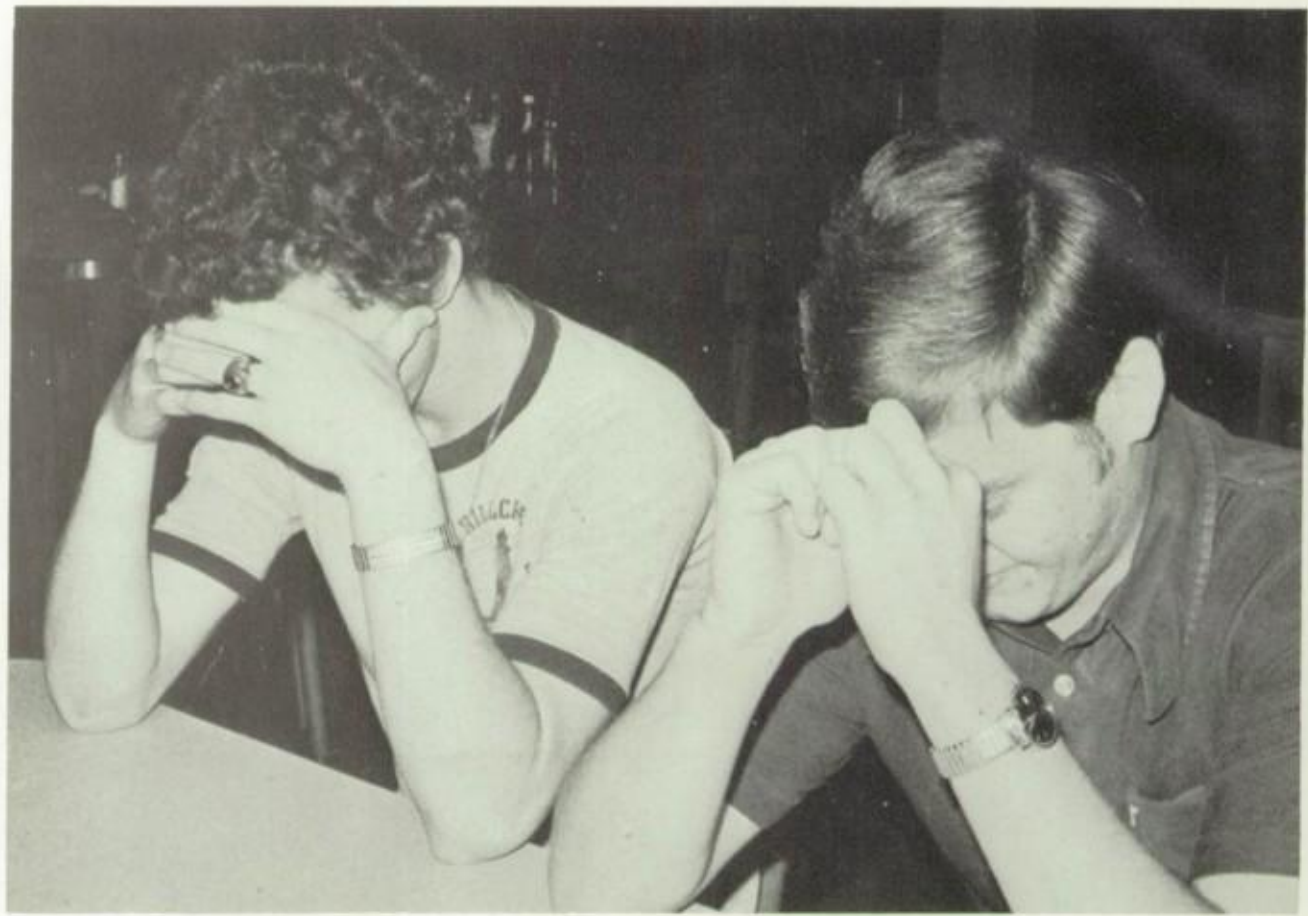

Patrons

Mrs. Mary Correll
Mr. and Mrs. Ray Felton
Mrs. Sandra Franklin
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patterson

Grand Patrons

Mr. and Mrs. James Ables
Mr. L. G. Balfour
Mrs. Mary W. Bradley
Mr. Howard O. Pippen

Thank Goodness! We Survived Another Year . . .

In surveying the 1974-75 school year, we can say that it brought something new and special for everyone, but then that is always true of Hill. There is a special spirit here; a unique willingness to work together that repeatedly brings fine results on whatever project we undertake. The responsibility of being editor of an annual is a tremendous one, for the results reflect the entire image of a school and everyone who is concerned with it. I would like to thank the many people who have worked with me this year in creating the '75 TIGER: the patrons for their financial support, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Patterson for the use of their farm and St. Andrew's Episcopal Cathedral for the use of their courtyard, both for picture backgrounds; Mr. Norman Thomas and Pippen Photographers for the courtesies they offered; White's Florist for assistance in the Beauty-Beau Pageant; Mr. Nicky Drake and Mr. Henry Flowers of Taylor Publishing; the faculty and administration for sympathy, understanding and support, especially Mr. Jim Angelo for his photography and darkroom help; and the '75 Tiger staff for diligence in their work. A special thanks goes to the students who provided a year worth recording, and to those who bought annuals and made it all possible. I have learned more from this experience than from any other thing I have undertaken, not only about journalism and photography, but about building character and mutual trust.
